

What if...

There was an excellent home school curriculum, in a small, easy to use package, for an unbelievably low price that:...

Covered kindergarten through 12th grade...

The whole family could use it at no extra charge...

Included more than a dozen subjects. ...

Was structured, yet flexible...

Employed principles proven effective for centuries...

Used the best vintage books...

Taught character ~ Love of God and his creations...

Imparted a proper appreciation for the Miracle that is America...

Passed on the wisdom of the ages...

Have you seen these words:

“Separation of Church and State”

In the U. S. Constitution?

If you can find these words in the U.S. Constitution you will have accomplished an amazing thing. The words ‘separation’ and ‘church’ do not even appear in the U.S. Constitution. Don’t believe it? Check in out!

If Congress were to pass a law prohibiting prayer in school, would it violate that part of the first amendment which reads: “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof...”?

If Congress, whose job is to create law, cannot prohibit prayer in school, how did the Supreme Court do it without violating both the first amendment and the separation of powers?
